

City Government

ACROSS CLUES:

- a town, village, or city with its own government
- allows a city to govern itself within the general laws of the state
- During the 1800s, political _____ did favors for citizens in return for votes.
- This South Carolina city was the first to have a council-manager government.
- A _____-mayor system allows the mayor to appoint and fire department heads.
- A _____ government gives executive and legislative powers to a group of commissioners.
- when members of the political party in power receive jobs or benefits
- Funds (money) available for certain city programs are called _____-in-aid.

DOWN CLUES:

- a city's own form of government organization
- total value of property which can be taxed
- election in which the candidates are not listed as being members of a political party
- oldest type of city government in the U.S.
- In 1978, this Ohio city defaulted on its debts (money owed).
- A _____-mayor system limits the mayor's executive power.