

State Government

ACROSS CLUES:

- The governor serves as the _____ party leader for his/her state.
- The state _____ decides which claims against the state are to be paid.
- The governor gets advice on legal matters from the _____ general.
- Each state has its own _____ which provides the framework for its government.
- _____ head of the state's executive branch
- In some states, the supreme court is called the court of _____.
- In the legislature, temporary committees are called _____ committees.

DOWN CLUES:

- The state _____ passes laws, decides on taxes, and provides money to the state government.
- The _____ of public instruction is the head of all state schools.
- The term of office for most governors is _____ years.
- The _____ of state administers election laws and publishes legislative acts.
- State supreme court judges from this state are elected for life.
- the only state which has a unicameral (one-house) legislature
- These taxes help pay for public schools.