

Senate

ACROSS CLUES:

- _____ committees are the Senate's temporary committees.
- Each state sends _____ senators to serve in the Senate.
- Senators are free to say or to write what they want because they are protected by legal _____.
- _____ serves as president of the Senate when the Vice President is gone.
- _____ president of the Senate
- A Senate meeting is called a _____.
- a long speech used to try to prevent the Senate from voting on a bill

DOWN CLUES:

- a procedure to limit debate and prevent a filibuster from being successful
- One _____ senators make up the Senate.
- The Senate is the _____ house in Congress.
- _____ when the Senate reverses a Presidential veto
- The _____ committee schedules bills for the Senate to vote on.
- The Senate has 16 permanent or _____ committees.
- _____ the number of years in a senator's term of office