

DEDUCTIVE THINKING SKILLS

HOW THEY EARN MONEY

Angelo, Becky, Conrad, and Doreen are an actor, a bellhop, a comedian, and a trapeze artist. From the clues below, match each person's name and occupation.

1. Doreen is not in show business.
2. Neither Becky nor Angelo is the actor
3. People never laugh when Becky is working.

THREE DAUGHTERS

Alice, Brenda, and Celeste are the daughters of Dwight, Edna, and Frank, who are a butcher, a carpenter, and a doctor. Use the clues to match up everything.

1. The carpenter's daughter's best friend is Alice, but she's very fond of Brenda too.
2. Dwight's daughter invited Brenda and the doctor's daughter to a party.
3. Edna is not the doctor.

A TOUGHER PROBLEM

Ichabod, Lloyd, and Otto live in Illinois, Louisiana, and Oregon.
One drinks iced water, one drinks lemonade, and one drinks orange juice.

1. Nobody lives in a state or drinks something which starts with the same letter as his name starts with.
2. The state where each person lives starts with a letter that is different from the first letter of his drink.
3. Ichabod does not live in Louisiana.
